A true haven of peace, the Nolinski Venezia offers its guests a timeless stay where Art and Matter reign supreme, right in the heart of the Serenissima.

Since the year 2000, the Hospitality Awards have been recognizing the most exemplary and innovative initiatives in the global hotel industry in terms of communication, marketing, sustainable development, human resources, and concepts.

ABOUT NOLINSKI VENEZIA

A few canals over from the Piazza San Marco and La Fenice opera house stands the Nolinski Venezia. Its majestic façade, adorned with mythical creatures, the daughters of Poseidon, reminds us of the potency that La Serenissima draws from its waters.

Over five floors, art and noble materials reign supreme: stucco marbro and marmorino contrast with mango wood joinery and paneling, while classical and contemporary works of art indulge the eye in even the most tucked away corners of the hotel.

From Il Caffè and its courtyard, to the Library Bar, with its four thousand books and a ceiling fresco by the artist Simon Buret, to the lobby, that manages to be both intimate and grand, to the auditorium that houses the Palais Royal Restaurant Venezia, and of course the pool, with its golden mosaic and view onto the Venetian skies and rooftops, every corner and detail embodies an exceptional sense of hospitality.

Some places have soul, while others are merely beautiful. And at Calle Larga XII Marzo, it is the Nolinski's soul that resonates.
