Brach Paris Moves to the Rhythm of Roland-Garros.

During Roland-Garros, from May 18 to June 7, 2026, western Paris comes alive with the energy of the tournament. Just minutes from Porte d'Auteuil, Brach Paris naturally becomes part of this vibrant atmosphere, where sport meets the art of living.

Located only a short distance from Roland-Garros, the hotel offers a seamless transition from comfort to the intensity of the matches. On the courts, rallies grow more intense, the crowd holds its breath, and each day unfolds to the rhythm of suspense and passion that define the magic of the tournament.

Between matches, the first-floor terrace at Brach becomes a lively meeting point. Over cocktails and sharing plates enhanced by Kalios products, conversations spark to life—analyzing a passing shot, debating a tie-break—while the energy of the courts carries on in a more intimate setting.

As evening falls, the Mediterranean takes center stage at the restaurant.

Chef Adam Bentalha presents generous, sun-drenched cuisine in a vibrant atmosphere where flavors and conversations blend effortlessly. The night continues naturally, rising up to the Rooftop Minuty, as golden light drapes over Parisian rooftops and the city slows down over a final drink.

During Roland-Garros, Brach Paris offers a distinctive way to experience the fortnight: a subtle balance between excitement and serenity.
